3.3. Headings

Headings do not form part of or affect the construction, or interpretation of this Constitution.

4. OBJECTS AND PURPOSES

4.1. Objects

The Company is a not for profit organisation, established for the primary purpose of facilitating the enhancement of the Australian litigation funding market (the “Market”) by means including, but not limited to:

- (a) providing education, training and information concerning litigation funding and the Market to its Members and the Market’s stakeholders and prospective plaintiffs;
- (b) actively lobbying the government and legislators, and engaging with other regulators and policy makers to help shape the legal and regulatory framework of litigation funding in Australia; and
- (c) promoting best practice and ethical behaviour amongst litigation funders in Australia.

4.2. Powers

The Company has all the powers of a Company limited by guarantee under the Corporations Act 2001, and to carry out its Objects set out in clause 4.1.

4.3. Assets and Income

- (a) The assets and income of the Company shall be applied solely in furtherance of the objects of the Company set out in clause 4.1 and no portion shall be distributed directly or indirectly to the Members or Secretary except as bona fide compensation for services rendered or expenses incurred on behalf of the Company in accordance with clauses 4.3(b), (c) and 15.
- (b) No assets or income of the Company will be paid, transferred or distributed, directly or indirectly, by way of dividend, bonus or otherwise to any Member of the Company. However, nothing in this Constitution will prevent payment in good faith to a Member, Secretary or their associates in return for any services rendered, goods supplied or expenses incurred in carrying out the Objects under clause 4.1.
- (c) No director’s fees may be paid to the directors. All other payments to directors must be approved by directors, including but not limited to:
 - (i) out-of-pocket expenses incurred by a director in performing a duty as a director of the Company; and
 - (ii) for any service rendered to the Company by the Director in a professional or technical capacity, other than in a capacity as Director, where, where the provisions of the service has the prior approval of the Board and is not more than an amount which commercially would be reasonable for the service.
- (d) This clause 4.3 does not prohibit identification of, or payment of premiums on contracts of insurance for, any director to the extent permitted by law and this Constitution.

5. MEMBERSHIP

5.1. Membership and Register of Members

- (a) The Members are:
 - (i) Initial Members;
 - (ii) Funders;
 - (iii) Managers; and
 - (iv) any person or entity that the directors allow to be a Member, in accordance with this Constitution.
- (b) The Company must establish and maintain a Register of Members. The Register of Members must be kept by the Secretary and must contain each Member's:
 - (i) name;
 - (ii) address; including any alternative address nominated by the Member for the service of notices; and
 - (iii) Date of Membership.
- (c) The Register of Members must also include persons who have been Members within the last seven (7) years. The Register of Members must contain each Member's:
 - (i) name;
 - (ii) address, including any alternative address nominated by the Member for the service of notices, and
 - (iii) term of Membership, including the Date of Membership and Date of Termination.
- (d) The Company must allow Members access to the Register of Members.
- (e) Information that is accessed from the Register of Members must only be used in a manner relevant to the interests or rights of Members.

5.2. Who can be a Member

A person who supports the Objects, and is eligible to apply to be a Member pursuant to clause 5.3.

5.3. Application for Membership

A person may apply for Membership to the Company by writing to the Secretary to the effect that they:

- (a) are desirous of being a Member (either as a Funder or Manager);
- (b) support the Objects; and
- (c) agree to comply with this Constitution.

5.4. Consideration of Membership application

- (a) At the first meeting of the Board of Directors after an application for Membership has been received by the Secretary, the Board of Directors must consider the application and either accept or reject the application by a simple majority.
- (b) The Board of Directors are not required to provide any reasons for their determination under clause 5.4(a).

5.5. Registration of Member

- (a) If the Board of Directors accept an application for Membership, as soon as practicable, the Secretary must enter the Member on the Register of Members and write to the Applicant to notify them that their application has been approved.
- (b) Other than Initial Members, an Applicant will become a Member when they are entered on the Register of Members.

5.6. When Membership ceases

A Member will cease as a Member of the Company if they:

- (a) pass away;
- (b) are wound up, dissolved or deregistered;
- (c) resign as a Member by giving written notice to the Secretary;
- (d) are party to, or the subject of, an Insolvency Event;
- (e) are expelled pursuant to clause 5.7; or
- (f) fail to respond to a written request from the Secretary within thirty (30) days.

5.7. Suspension and termination of membership

- (a) A Member's membership may be immediately suspended if the board of directors reasonably determine at a meeting of the board of directors, at their discretion and in accordance with clause 9.5 hereof, that in their reasonable opinion the member has:
 - (i) failed to comply with any law or regulation of Australia; or
 - (ii) failed to comply with the prevailing Code of Conduct of Litigation Funders or other rules of the company as have been notified to members from time to time; or
 - (iii) has engaged or is engaging in any conduct likely to bring the company into disrepute; or
 - (iv) has failed to pay to the company the annual subscription fee within the meaning of the rules for 30 days after it becomes due.
- (b) A person's membership may be terminated by the directors if they determine at a meeting of the board of directors, at their discretion in accordance with clause 9.5 hereof, that that person has:

- (i) failed, within three months' notice by the board, to remedy a default under sub-clause 5.7(a) above to the reasonable satisfaction of the board; or
 - (ii) otherwise ceased to be eligible for membership; or
 - (iii) failed to comply with the prevailing Code of Conduct of Litigation Funders or other rules of the company as have been notified to members from time to time; or
 - (iv) has engaged or is engaging in any conduct likely to bring the company into disrepute; or
 - (v) failed to pay to the company the annual subscription fee within the meaning of the rules for 30 days after it becomes due, has received from the secretary notice of the fact, and has still failed to pay the subscription fee after 21 days from the date of that notice.
- (c) A person's membership shall not be terminated by the directors unless at least 21 days' notice has been given to that person of:
- (i) the directors' meeting at which the question of the termination of that person's membership shall be considered;
 - (ii) the reason for the proposed termination; and
 - (iii) informing the Member that he, she or it may attend the meeting and may give an oral or written explanation or submission before the resolution is put to the vote.
- (d) If a person's membership is terminated by the directors, the secretary shall as soon as practicable give written notice of that decision to the Member.
- (e) When a Member's membership is terminated, the secretary shall strike that person's name off the register of members.
- (f) The company may take all reasonable steps to investigate whether there are grounds for suspending and/or terminating a Member's membership under clause 5.7 (a) or (b).
- (g) the company may publicise the fact of a Member's suspension under clause 5.7(a) but shall keep the grounds and any matters concerning the investigation thereof strictly confidential pending any determination under clause 5.7 (b), after which time that Company may publicise the fact of a Member's termination.

5.8. Membership entitlements not transferable

A right, privilege or obligation which a person has by reason of being a Member of the Company:

- (a) is not capable of being transferred or transmitted to another person; and
- (b) ceases on the Date of Termination.

6. GENERAL MEETINGS

6.1. General Meetings called by Board of Directors

- (a) The Board of Directors may call and arrange to hold a General Meeting as deemed appropriate.
- (b) A Director may call a meeting of the Board of Directors by giving twenty-one (21) days' notice to all of the other members of the Board of Directors.
- (c) A Director may give notice in writing or by any other means of communication that has previously been agreed to unanimously by the Board of Directors.
- (d) A notice of a General Meeting must:
 - (i) specify the date, time and place of the meeting;
 - (ii) except as provided by the Corporations Act, state the general nature of the business to be transacted at the meeting; and
 - (iii) specify a place and e-mail address for the receipt of proxies.
- (e) A person may waive notice of a General Meeting by written notice to the Company.
- (f) If Members with at least 10% of the votes that may be cast at a General Meeting make a written request to the Company for a General Meeting to be held, the directors must:
 - (i) within twenty-one (21) days of the Members' request, give all Members notice of a General Meeting; and
 - (ii) hold the General Meeting within two (2) months of the Members' request.
- (g) The percentage of votes that Members have in clause 6.2(a) is to be worked out as at midnight on the day the request is made.
- (h) The Members who make the request for a General Meeting must:
 - (i) state in the request any resolution to be proposed at the meeting;
 - (ii) sign the request; and
 - (iii) give the request to the Company.
- (i) Separate copies of a document setting out the request may be signed by Members if the wording of the request is the same in each copy.

6.2. General Meetings called by Members

- (a) If the directors do not call the meeting within twenty-one (21) days of the request under clause 6.1(f), 10% or more of the Members who made the request may call, and arrange to hold a General Meeting.
- (b) To call, and hold a meeting under clause 6.2(a), the Members must:

- (i) as far as possible, follow the procedures for General Meetings set out in this Constitution;
 - (ii) call the meeting using the Register of Members, which the Company must provide to the Members making the request at no cost; and
 - (iii) hold the General Meeting within three (3) months after the request was given to the Company.
- (c) The Company must pay the Members who request a General Meeting any reasonable expenses they incur as a result of the failure of the Board of Directors to call and hold the meeting pursuant to clause 6.1(f).

6.3. Annual General Meeting

- (a) An Annual General Meeting must be held:
- (i) within eighteen (18) months after registration of the Company; and
 - (ii) after the first Annual General Meeting, at least once in every calendar year.
- (b) Even if these items are not set out in the notice of meeting, the business of an Annual General Meeting may include:
- (i) a review of the Company's activities;
 - (ii) a review of the Company's finances;
 - (iii) any auditor's report;
 - (iv) the election of directors; and
 - (v) the appointment and payment of auditors (if any).
- (c) Before or at the Annual General Meeting, the directors must give information to the Members on the Company's activities and finances during the period since the last Annual General Meeting.
- (d) The chairperson of the Annual General Meeting must give Members a reasonable opportunity at a General Meeting to ask questions or make comments about the management of the Company.

6.4. General Meeting Chairperson

- (a) The Board of Directors may elect one Director as chairperson of the directors (Elected Chairperson) and may decide the period for which that director is to be the chairperson for the General Meeting.
- (b) The Elected Chairperson must (if present within 15 minutes after the time appointed for the meeting and willing to act) preside as chairperson at each general meeting.
- (c) If at an Annual General Meeting:
- (i) there is no chairperson of the Board of Directors;

- (ii) the chairperson of the Board of Directors is not present within 15 minutes after the time appointed for the meeting; or
- (iii) the chairperson of the Board of Directors is present within that time but is not willing to act as chairperson of the meeting, the Members present must elect as chairperson of the meeting:

- (i) another director who is present and willing to act; or
 - (ii) if no other director present at the meeting is willing to act, a Member who is present and willing to act.
- (d) The chairperson is responsible for the conduct of the General Meeting, and for this purpose must give the Members of reasonable opportunity to make comments and ask questions.
 - (e) The chairperson does not have a casting vote.

6.5. Quorum at Annual General Meetings

- (a) No business may be transacted at an Annual General Meeting, except the election of a chairperson and the adjournment of the meeting, unless a quorum of Members is present when the meeting proceeds to business matters.
- (b) A quorum consists of:
 - (i) if there is only one Member entitled to vote, that Member; and
 - (ii) in any other case, three (3) Members entitled to vote, unless the Members have fixed a higher number of Members entitled to vote, and present at the meeting.
- (c) If a quorum is not present within thirty (30) minutes after the time appointed for a General Meeting:
 - (i) where the meeting was convened on the requisition of Members, the meeting must be dissolved; or
 - (ii) in any other case, the meeting stands adjourned to the day, and at the time and place, that the Board of Directors decide or, if the Board of Directors do not make a decision, to the same day in the next week at the same time and place.

6.6. Auditors right to attend General Meetings

- (a) The auditor (if any) is entitled to attend any General Meeting and to be heard by the Members on any part of the business of the meeting that concerns the auditor in the capacity of an auditor.
- (b) The Company must provide to the auditor (if any) any communications relating to the General Meeting that a Member is entitled to receive.

6.7. Decisions at General Meetings

- (a) Except where by law a Special Resolution is required, questions arising at a General Meeting must be decided by a majority of votes cast by the Members present at the meeting. Such a decision is for all purposes a decision of the Members.

- (b) Where the votes on a proposed resolution are equal:
 - (i) the chairperson of the meeting does not have a second or casting vote; and
 - (ii) the proposed resolution is taken as lost.
- (c) A demand for a poll does not prevent a General Meeting continuing for the transaction of any business except the question on which the poll has been demanded.
- (d) If a poll is duly demanded at a General Meeting, it must be taken in such manner and either at once or after an interval or adjournment or otherwise, as the chairperson of the meeting directs. The result of the poll is the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.
- (e) A poll demanded at a General Meeting on the election of a chairperson of the meeting or on a question of adjournment must be taken immediately.
- (f) The demand for a poll may be withdrawn.
- (g) If the Company has only one Member, the Company may pass a resolution by the Member recording it and signing the record.

6.8. Circular Resolution of Members

- (a) Subject to clause 6.8(c), the Board of Directors may put a resolution to the Members to pass a resolution without a General Meeting being held (Circular Resolution).
- (b) The Board of Directors must notify the auditor (if any) as soon as possible that a Circular Resolution has or will be put to Members, and set out the wording of the Circular Resolution.
- (c) Circular Resolutions cannot be used:
 - (i) for a resolution to remove an auditor, appoint a director or remove a director;
 - (ii) for passing a Special Resolution; or
 - (iii) where the Corporations Act or this Constitution requires a meeting to be held.
- (d) A Circular Resolution is passed if all the Members entitled to vote on the resolution sign or agree to the Circular Resolution, in the manner set out in clause 6.8(e).
- (e) Each Member may sign:
 - (i) a single document setting out the Circular Resolution and containing a statement that they agree to the Circular Resolution; or
 - (ii) separate copies of that document, as long as the wording is the same in each copy.
- (f) The Company may send a Circular Resolution by email to Members and Members may agree by sending a reply email to that effect, including the text of the Circular Resolution in their reply.

6.9. Notice of General Meetings

- (a) Notice of a General Meeting must be given to:
 - (i) each Member entitled to vote at the Meeting;
 - (ii) each Director; and
 - (iii) an auditor, if any.
- (b) Notice of a General Meeting must be provided in writing at least twenty-one (21) days before the meeting.
- (c) Notice of a General Meeting may be provided less than twenty-one (21) days prior to the meeting:
 - (i) for an Annual General Meeting and where all Members entitled to vote agree beforehand; or
 - (ii) for any other General Meeting, where Members with at least 95% of the votes that may be cast at the meeting agree beforehand.
- (d) A notice of a General Meeting must:
 - (i) specify the date, time and place of the meeting;
 - (ii) state the general nature of the business to be transacted at the meeting; and
 - (iii) specify a place and fax number or electronic address for the receipt of proxies.
- (e) A person may waive notice of a General Meeting by written notice to the Company.
- (f) A person's attendance at a General Meeting waives any objection that person may have to:
 - (i) a failure to give notice, or the giving of a defective notice, of the meeting unless, at the beginning of the meeting, the person objects to the holding of the meeting; and
 - (ii) the consideration of a particular matter at the meeting which is not within the business referred to in the notice of the meeting, unless the person objects to considering the matter when it is presented.

6.10. Conducting a General Meeting

- (a) A question arising at a General Meeting relating to the order of business, procedure or conduct of the meeting must be referred to the chairperson of the meeting, whose decision is final.
- (b) A Member who takes part in a General Meeting by telephone or other electronic means is taken to be present in person at the General Meeting.

6.11. Adjournment of meetings

- (a) If a quorum is present, a General Meeting must be adjourned if a majority of Members present direct the chairperson to adjourn the meeting.
- (b) Where a meeting is adjourned for 30 days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting must be given as for an original meeting.

7. VOTING

7.1. Voting Rights

- (a) Subject to this Constitution and to any rights or restrictions attached to any class of Membership, at a General Meeting every Member present has one (1) vote.
- (b) A proxy, attorney or representative is entitled to a separate vote for each Member the person represents, in addition to any vote the person may have as a Member in his or her own right.
- (c) An objection to the qualification of a person to vote at a General Meeting must be:
 - (i) raised before or at the meeting at which the vote objected to is given or tendered; and
 - (ii) referred to the chairperson of the meeting, whose decision is final.
- (d) A vote not disallowed by the chairperson of a meeting under clause 7.1(c) is valid for all purposes.

7.2. How voting is carried out

- (a) Voting must be conducted and decided by:
 - (i) a show of hands;
 - (ii) a vote in writing; or
 - (iii) another method chosen by the chairperson that is fair and reasonable in the circumstances.
- (b) Subject to this Constitution, each Member entitled to vote at a meeting of Members may vote:
 - (i) in person or, where a Member is a body corporate, by its representatives;
 - (ii) by not more than two (2) proxies; or
 - (iii) by not more than two (2) attorneys.
- (c) Before a vote is taken, the chairperson must state whether any proxy votes have been received and, if so, how the proxy votes will be cast.
- (d) On a show of hands, the chairperson's decision is conclusive evidence of the result of the vote.
- (e) The chairperson and the meeting minutes do not need to state the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour or against on a show of hands.

7.3. When a vote in writing must be held

- (a) Vote in writing may be demanded on any resolution instead of or after a vote by a show of hands of:
 - (i) at least five (5) Members present;
 - (ii) Members present with at least 5% of the votes that may be passed on the resolution on the vote in writing (worked out as at the midnight before the vote in writing is demanded); or
 - (iii) the Elected Chairperson.
- (b) A vote in writing must be taken when and how the chairperson directs, except in the circumstances prescribed in clause 7.3(c).
- (c) A vote in writing must be immediately conducted, subject to clause 7.2(a)(ii) for:
 - (i) for the election of a chairperson under clause 6.4(a); or
 - (ii) to decide whether to adjourn a meeting pursuant to clause 6.11.
- (d) A demand for a vote in writing under clauses 7.2(a)(ii) and 7.3(c) may be withdrawn.

7.4. Appointment of proxy

- (a) A Member may appoint a proxy (Appointing Member) to attend and vote at a General Meeting on their behalf.
- (b) A proxy need not, be a Member of the Company.
- (c) A proxy may be appointed for all General Meetings, or for any number of General Meetings, or for a particular General Meeting.
- (d) An appointment of proxy must be signed by the Appointing Member (Proxy Form) and must contain:
 - (i) the Member's name and address;
 - (ii) the Company's name;
 - (iii) the proxy's name or the name of the office held by the proxy; and
 - (iv) the meeting(s) at which the appointment may be used.
- (e) Proxy Forms need not be in any particular form as long as it is in writing, legally valid and signed by, or on behalf of the Appointing Member.
- (f) Proxy Forms must be received by the Company at the Company's registered address at least 48 hours before a meeting. If not, the proxy will not have the authority to vote at a General Meeting or adjourned meeting.
- (g) A proxy does not have the authority to speak, or vote for the Appointing Member at a meeting when the Appointing Member is present at that meeting.
- (h) Unless the Company receives written notice before the start or resumption of a General Meeting at which a proxy votes, a vote cast by the proxy is valid even if, before the proxy votes, the Appointing Member:
 - (i) passes away;

- (ii) is mentally incapacitated;
- (iii) revokes the proxy's appointment; or
- (iv) revokes the authority of a representative or agent who appointed the proxy.

7.5. Voting by proxy

- (a) Unless otherwise provided in Proxy Form, the Proxy Form appointing a proxy is to be taken to confer authority:
 - (i) to agree to a meeting being convened by shorter notice than is required by the Corporations Act or by this Constitution;
 - (ii) to agree to a resolution being proposed and passed as a Special Resolution at a meeting of which less than the period of notice required by the Corporations Act has been given;
 - (iii) even though the Proxy Form may refer to specific resolutions and may direct the proxy, attorney or representative how to vote on those resolutions:
 - I. to vote on any amendment moved to the proposed resolutions and on any motion that the proposed resolutions not be put or any similar motion;
 - II. to vote on any procedural motion, including any motion to elect the chairperson, to vacate the chair or to adjourn the meeting; and
 - III. to act generally at the meeting.
- (b) Where a Member appoints two (2) proxies or attorneys to vote at the same General Meeting, the following rules apply:
 - (i) subject to clause 7.5, the appointment is of no effect and a proxy or attorney may not vote unless each proxy or attorney (as applicable) is appointed to represent a specified proportion of the Member's voting rights;
 - (ii) if the Corporations Act precludes the Company from treating as invalid the appointment of two (2) proxies which fails to specify the proportion or number of votes that each may exercise, each person appointed may exercise half the Member's votes;
 - (iii) on a show of hands, neither the proxy or attorney may vote;
 - (iv) on a poll, each proxy or attorney may only exercise the voting rights the proxy or attorney represents; and
 - (v) if both appointments cannot be validly exercised at the meeting, the later appointment revokes the earlier appointment of a proxy or attorney.
- (c) The Proxy Form appointing a proxy may direct the manner in which the is to vote in respect of a particular resolution and, where an instrument so provides, the proxy is not entitled to vote on the proposed resolution except as directed in the Proxy Form.

8. BOARD OF DIRECTORS

8.1. Number of Directors

Subject to this clause 8.1, the Company must have:

- (a) at least three (3) Directors; and
- (b) not more than five (5) Directors.

8.2. Election and appointment of Directors

- (a) Apart from the Initial Directors and Directors appointed under clause 8.4, the Members may elect a Director by a resolution passed in a General Meeting.
- (b) Each of the Directors must be appointed by a separate resolution, unless:
 - (i) the Members present have first passed a resolution that the appointments may be voted on together; and
 - (ii) no votes were cast against that resolution.

8.3. Eligibility

A person is eligible for election as a Director if they:

- (a) are a Member of the Company, or a representative of a Member of the Company (appointed under clause 5);
- (b) are nominated by two (2) Members or representatives of Members entitled to vote (unless the person was previously elected as a director at a General Meeting and has been a director since that meeting);
- (c) give the Company their signed consent to act as a director of the Company; and

- (f) to ensure that the financial affairs of the Company are managed responsibly; and
- (g) not to allow the Company to operate while it is insolvent.

8.8. Conflict of Interest

- (a) A Director must disclose the nature and extent of any actual or perceived material conflict of interest in a matter that is being considered at a meeting of the Board of Directors (or that is proposed in a circular resolution):
 - (i) to the other Directors; or
 - (ii) if all of the Directors have the same conflict of interest, to the Members at the next General Meeting, or at an earlier time if reasonable to do so.
- (b) The disclosure of a conflict of interest by a Director must be recorded in the minutes of the meeting.
- (c) Each Director who has a material personal interest in a matter that is being considered at a meeting of Board of Directors (or that is proposed in a circular resolution) must not, except as provided under clause 8.8(d):
 - (i) be present at the meeting while the matter is being discussed; or
 - (ii) vote on the matter.
- (d) A Director may still be present and vote if:
 - (i) their interest arises because they are a Member, and the other Members have the same interest;
 - (ii) their interest relates to an insurance contract that insures, or would insure, the Director against liabilities that the director incurs as a Director of the Company;
 - (iii) their interest relates to a payment by the Company under clause 13.2 (indemnity), or any contract relating to an indemnity that is allowed under the Corporations Act; or
 - (iv) the Australian Securities and Investments Commission (ASIC) makes an order allowing the director to vote on the matter.

8.9. Payments for directors

- (a) The Company must not pay fees to a Director for acting as a Director.
- (b) The Company may:
 - (i) pay a Director for work undertaken, or service provided to the Company, other than as a Director, if the amount is no more than a reasonable fee for the work done, or services provided or

13. INDEMNITY AND INSURANCE

13.1. Persons to whom the indemnity and insurance apply

The indemnity and insurance referred to in this clause applies to the following individuals (indemnified officers):

- (a) each person who is or has been a Director or executive officer (within the meaning of clause 8.2 of the Constitution); and
- (b) any other officers or former officers of the Company as the Directors in each case decide.

13.2. Indemnity

- (a) The Company must indemnify, on a full indemnity basis and to the full extent permitted by law, each indemnified officer against all losses or liabilities (including costs and expenses) incurred by the person as an officer of the Company.
- (b) This indemnity:
 - (i) is a continuing obligation and is enforceable by an indemnified officer even though that person has ceased to be an officer of the Company; and
 - (ii) operates only to the extent that the loss or liability in question is not covered by insurance.

13.3. Insurance

The Company may, to the extent permitted by law:

- (a) obtain and maintain insurance; or
- (b) pay or agree to pay a premium for insurance, for any indemnified officer against any liability incurred by the person as an officer of the Company where the Board of Directors consider it appropriate to do so.

13.4. Savings

Nothing in this clause:

- (a) affects any other right or remedy that an indemnified officer may have in respect of any loss or liability referred to in this indemnity or insurance; or
- (b) limits the capacity of the Company to indemnify or provide or pay for insurance for any person to whom this rule does not apply.

14. AUDITOR

The Company may appoint a qualified auditor whose duties will be regulated in accordance with the Corporations Act.

15. WINDING UP

If the Company is resolved or wound up, any Surplus Assets must be transferred to another association or organisation with similar objects and purposes as the Company which is not carried on for the profit or gain of its individual members.

16. ALTERING THIS CONSTITUTION

The Company must not pass a Special Resolution making a material alteration to, or materially affecting, clauses 4.1, 4.3 or 15, or any other alteration to the Constitution, if, as a result, the Company is no longer not for profit.
